*Articulations provided in this guide are unofficial and are intended solely as a guide. Courses other than those listed may fit the general education requirements. To receive official course articulations, an official transcript from every college and university attended is required.

* Only courses with grades of C- or better are eligible for transfer credit, unless otherwise noted.

\(^1\) The six credits may be satisfied in one of two ways: a) Students with at least two years of high school study of the same foreign language with grades of C or better may select six hours from additional foreign language, foreign culture, or selected history, political science, or international business courses. B) Students without such high school foreign language experience MUST take six credits of one foreign language.
